

Course Title	Roman Law
Faculty	Faculty of Law and Business Studies Dr Lazar Vrkatić
Study Programme	Law
Professor	Full Professor Savo Marković		Contact (e-mail address)
Code		Course level	Undergraduate (BA)	ECTS credits	9
Description (max. 100 words)	The aim of this course is to provide students with the knowledge of Roman law, which is the foundation of the Continental legal system, to introduce students to the formation and development of Roman society, the state and rights, especially its private law. Introduced is the significance of the law and legal state, as well as the impact of socio-economic and political circumstances on the character of the law and the legal technology. Also introduced are basic institutions of private Roman law, development, character and, to a certain degree, universal significance thereof, as a basis for building modern private law.
Learning outcomes (max. 50 words)	Students have acquired knowledge about the main institutions of Roman law. They understand the importance of law formation, interpretation and practical application thereof; they understand the role of Roman law in the creation of modern legal systems; they view the law and the state as dynamic social phenomena.
Semester	2		Maximum number of visiting students
Language	Serbian		Available for international students (YES or NO)	YES	