

Course Title	Business English 4
Faculty	Faculty of Law and Business Studies Dr Lazar Vrkić
Study Programme	Security and Criminalistics
Professor	Milica Rađenović		Contact (e-mail address)	radjenovic.mi@gmail.com
Code		Course level	Undergraduate	ECTS credits	5
Description (max. 100 words)	The course includes a systematic review of English grammar with exercises. The course covers complex grammatical structures which are necessary for oral and written communication at B2 level – the indicative, imperative and subjunctive mood, conditional sentences type 1, 2 and 3, the passive voice, articles, prepositional verbs, phrasal verbs, reported speech. Students broaden their knowledge of terminology and vocabulary related to law and criminalistics by analysing various professional texts, doing vocabulary, writing and listening comprehension exercises.
Learning outcomes (max. 50 words)	Students have mastered written and oral communication at B2 level. Students are able to demonstrate knowledge of terminology and vocabulary related to law and criminalistics. Students can successfully analyse complex professional texts.
Semester	4		Maximum number of visiting students
Language	English, Serbian		Available for international students (YES or NO)	YES	