

Course Title	CRIMINAL LAW
Faculty	FACULTY OF LAW AND BUSINESS STUDIES DR LAZAR VRKATIĆ
Study Programme	SECURITY AND CRIME SCIENCE
Professor	TATJANA SKAKAVAC, assistant professor	Contact (e-mail address)	tatjana.skakavac@gmail.com
Code		Course level	UNDERGRADUATE (BA)	ECTS credits	6
Description (max. 100 words)	The aim of the course is for students to acquire general and special knowledge about criminal law as a scientific discipline and branch of positive law, its basic principles, institutes and standards, especially those related to criminal offenses and criminal sanctions, and to acquire the necessary knowledge and skills for the proper practical application of legal regulations in the area of substantive criminal law.
Learning outcomes (max. 50 words)	Students are expected to: know the sources, subject, structure and function of criminal law; master the concepts and categories of criminal law; know the characteristics of criminal offenses, types of criminal sanctions and elements of particular crimes; use professional references and materials in the field of criminal law.
Semester	3	Maximum number of visiting students
Language	SERBIAN	Available for international students (YES or NO)	YES		