

Course Title	INTRODUCTION TO LAW
Faculty	FACULTY OF LAW AND BUSINESS STUDIES DR LAZAR VRKATIĆ
Study Programme	SECURITY AND CRIME SCIENCE
Professor	DRAGOMIR JOVIČIĆ, associate professor	Contact (e-mail address)	dragomir.pravedna@gmail.com
Code		Course level	UNDERGRADUATE (BA)	ECTS credits	6
Description (max. 100 words)	The objective of the course is a systematic introduction to the law and state, as well as the acquisition of basic knowledge about the state and law, as an introduction to the legal studies. Students are introduced to the problem of law reflected through the relationship between the social action, positive legal norms and legal values; the structure of modern legal systems; the structure of legal norms; general conditions for the creation and functioning of modern legal systems.
Learning outcomes (max. 50 words)	Students understand the origin, the structure and the essence of the law and the state; master the basic legal concepts; gain the ability and competence to share arguments on legal-theoretical issues; acquire knowledge about the application of law in real social relations; master the art of interpreting legal norms.
Semester	1	Maximum number of visiting students
Language	SERBIAN	Available for international students (YES or NO)		YES	